SPIRIT MOM LIFE

Schall Adams

Spirit Mom to Levi, Spiritual Life Coach, Speaker,
Author and Host of The Spirit Mom Life Podcast.

The day my son Levi returned to Spirit, my world changed forever, but so did my understanding of Spirit. What began as unbearable grief has become a sacred journey of connection, healing, and purpose.

Your audience will leave with a new understanding of how identity shapes their life experience to create lasting transformation in how they navigate relationships, challenges, purpose, and the human experience itself.

What people say about my work:

"I realized how my limiting beliefs had spilled over into my former marriage, and now into my business practices. I recognized my coping mechanisms no longer serve me. Schall helped me powerfully transform my insecure identity into a more peaceful, powerful, confident, and clear place."

"Your ability to articulate your emotions and feelings, and then turn them into a powerful message that is easy to comprehend. You're a gift, your mind is a treasure. Thank you for always being your authentic self and normalizing emotions. I appreciate you more than you know."

"This is so beautiful. Thank you for sharing this amazing story to understand how to deal with the grief and how to release the pain."

Bio / Introduction

Schall Adams is the CEO of The Liminal Bridge, LLC, founder of Spirit Mom Life, and host of The Spirit Mom Life Podcast. Her work explores consciousness, spiritual connection, healing, and the deeper nature of who we truly are.

After the loss of her son Levi, a profound spiritually transformative experience shifted the course of her life and awakened a deeper understanding of the ongoing relationship between the physical and spiritual worlds. Through storytelling, spiritual insight, and practical awareness, she guides audiences toward greater peace, purpose, and intentional living through conscious creation.

Signature talk tailored to your event:

Awakening Beyond the Human Experience™

Shifting the way we understand identity, consciousness, and human potential.

CORPORATE EVENTS
A grounded and transformative conversation about how unconscious patterns, stress, and conditioned thinking shape decision-making, leadership, and workplace culture. This talk helps audiences develop greater self-awareness, intentionality, emotional resilience, and clarity in the way they lead and live.

WOMEN'S EVENTS
An empowering conversation about breaking free from limitation, emotional conditioning, and survival patterns to live with greater peace, authenticity, purpose, and connection. Audiences are invited into a deeper understanding of themselves and the power of intentional living through expanded awareness.

SPIRITUAL EVENTS
A deeper exploration of consciousness and identity beyond the physical experience, and what becomes possible when awareness expands beyond limitation. This talk invites audiences into greater connection, spiritual awareness, intentional living, and conscious creation.

GRIEF EVENTS
Through emotionally honest storytelling, grounded spiritual insight, and her own transformative journey after the loss of her son Levi, Schall invites audiences into a deeper understanding of grief, consciousness, and the continuing bonds that remain between us and those we love in Spirit.
